

RH Electronics Quality Management Policy

Executives and employees trust and are committed to the existence and implementation of Quality Policy as required by ISO 9001 / AS9100 / ISO 13845 standards:

- ✓ Customer focus - ensuring customer satisfaction from the products and services provided.
- ✓ Risk analysis, risk management, process monitoring, product testing, to comply with quality requirements and delivery commitments.
- ✓ Adhering to defined and stable processes accompany with array of process control and quality control, from defining product requirements stage to the final supply of the product to the customer destination location.
- ✓ Implementation of risk analysis and quality awareness activities based on professionalism, responsibility, reliability, self-monitoring and striving for excellence with continuous improvement of each individual at the organization.
- ✓ Cultural at work in accordance with defined procedures and instructions. Organization maintains, manages and documents quality system, environment and safety according to the requirements of the required standards.
- ✓ Implement EICC code of business ethics. Transparency and Integrity to the customers, employees, suppliers and the community with access to information includes procedures, specifications and work instructions.
- ✓ Achieve concept of self-monitoring at all production activities. Each employee is responsible for the quality of his work, products and services provided and maintaining safety and occupational hygiene at all time.
- ✓ Effectiveness management control based upon setting goals and objectives, ongoing monitoring, periodic evaluation and reporting at the management reviews.
- ✓ Development and nurturing of human resources to enriches the individual knowledge and strengthen the organization.

The policy will be available via RH web site to all managers, employees, suppliers and subcontractors, and shall be available to any interested party.

Director Quality & Technology Shuki Segal	CEO Jacob Levi
	